GET TO KNOW THE YMG!

#asceSTLymg is the local Younger Member Group (YMG) for ASCE members 35 years and younger in the Gateway City.

We connect and develop civil engineering students and young professionals through:

- Social networking events
- Leadership skill development
- FE/PE licensure review opportunities
- Community service events such as K-12 outreach like Engineers Week
- Site visits for upcoming & active infrastructure in St. Louis

Your sponsorship directly supports these opportunities while demonstrating your company's investment in the next generation of St. Louis civil engineers.

Sponsorship benefits include:

- Brand visibility & recognition
- Recruitment exposure
- Networking with YMs & students
- Community & professional engagement
